The following committees reported:

- Joe Denman thanked the 24 members of the council and members of Tri-Valley high school for their help in cleaning up the grounds. Also, a big thank you to Father Luke for the plug during his Homily which brought more awareness than we could have hoped for with this project.

Knights of Columbus Meeting
Fr. Joseph Boylan, Jr. Council #15175
April 5, 2011

- Joe Klingler provided the following:
  - Reminded the council of May 14, 2011 Men's March in Peoria. Doughnuts will be served before leaving on the bus for Peoria. Planned departure time is 7:30 am and return time is 2:30 pm.
  - Adopt-A-Highway information has been received from McLean County Road commission, more information to follow.
  - Help needed for helping to staff the Nursery on Mother's Day.
  - Joe handed out a 2011 proposed calendar and then sent it out electronically with our planned events for the remainder of the year.

The following new business was brought up:

- The trustees: Roger Nalewajka; Kevin Cook; and Jim Woodward have been charged as the nominating committee for the upcoming June 2011 elections. Any interest in running for positions can contact any of the trustees.
- Roger Nalewajka has a contact at the Normal Cornbelters concession area if there is interest in doing this we need to let his contact know soon as spots are filling up quickly.
- Luke Filosa, Tim Abel, Jeff Lopez and Dan LaFayette will work to host a Fall golf outing for the Parish. We have the Ironwood Golf Course reserved for Friday, September 23, 2011.

The District Deputy, Mike Tellman reported as follows:

Glad to finally make a meeting as he has a Tuesday evening conflict with his home council meeting at the same time as our meeting. There will be no Bloomington/Normal degree ceremony this spring. Mike has been impressed with our start and hopes our momentum continues.

Under Good of the Order:

- Jeff Furler reported he sent thank you notes to CJ's catering and Bob Evans for the generous support of our Pancake Breakfast.
- A Blood Drive will be held in the parish hall the afternoon of Monday, April 18, we can help by donating blood.
- Ryan Remekus mentioned a MS Walk will be held on May 1 any donations would be gladly accepted for this worthy cause.

Closing Prayer, Hail Mary was led by John Fruin at 8:10 pm

Respectfully Submitted by,

Luke Filosa, Recorder
